

Frank Fredericks

When hiring a Realtor, many people look for a qualified professional with extensive experience, credentials and negotiating expertise. And many people stop their search at NorthWest Properties and Frank Fredericks. With more than 32 years in Real Estate and construction, Frank has gained a rare combination of knowledge, common sense and ingenuity to guard your interests at the same time he's working to maximize your profits. Frank specializes in the sale and purchase of residential and land properties for all of Clark County. He also enjoys acquainting new-to-the-area families with Clark County's schools and community activities. And if you're relocating to another area, Frank can help you achieve the highest price possible for your property in the shortest amount of time and with a minimum of inconvenience. Also look to Frank for assistance regarding foreclosure situations and proceedings. He has about 20 years working with Short Sales alone. Frank may even be able to help you avoid a foreclosure situation altogether. Frank Fredericks. Personal, professional, enthusiastic service and guaranteed results. Additional credentials:
